

Out-patient health care in 2022

Data on m.st. Warszawa

Statistical Office
in Warszawa

warszawa.stat.gov.pl/en/

@Warszawa_STAT

1571

OUT-PATIENT
HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS,
TOTAL

↑6.2%

Departments^a

1563 ↑6.5%

Medical and dental practices^b

8 ↓27.3%

ADAPTING THE UNIT TO THE NEEDS OF PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES

in out-patient departments and medical practices

ramps/platforms to facilitate entering the building

898

automatically opened entrance door to the building

218

elevators

543

facilities for the visually impaired
and the blind

83

non-slip floors

562

no facilities

127

OUT-PATIENT
CONSULTATIONS
PROVIDERS^c

25,881.9
thousand

↑5.9%

IN PRIMARY
HEALTH CARE

6,266.0 thousand

↑3.4%

WITHIN NIGHTTIME
AND HOLIDAY
HEALTH CARE^d

226.2 thousand

↑9.7%

IN SPECIALISED HEALTH CARE

19,389.7
thousand

↑6.7%

Medical 16,567.6
thousand

↑6.6%

Dental
2,822.1 thousand

↑7.4%

Consultations
provided
per inhabitant
13.9

Consultations
via telephone accounted for 20.6%

of total consultations provided
in out-patient health care

specialised medical and dental
care

to women

to children and youth under 18

to persons aged 65 and more

via telephone

↑ ↓ Increase/decrease compared to the previous year.

Including departments of the Ministry of National Defence and the Ministry of Interior and Administration. b The data includes practices that have signed contracts with the National Health Fund or with departments. c Consultation via telephone is medical or psychological consultation provided remotely using a telephone connection or other ICT systems. d Including patient funded counseling (non-state funding); without consultations from the admission rooms of general hospitals. e Nighttime and holiday health care are services in the field of primary health care provided from Monday to Friday from 6.00 p.m. to 8.00 a.m. the following day and 24 hours a day on public holidays, including basic emergency or continuing treatment.

Evaluate
the study

When publishing Statistical Office data, please indicate the source.